

Montgomery County Public Schools
457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan
Plan No. 62512

Start investing in yourself today, with help from the MCPS 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan and Fidelity.

Your Guide to Getting Started

Invest some of what you earn today for what you plan to accomplish tomorrow.

Your employer offers outstanding convenience and a variety of investment options. Take a look and see what a difference enrolling in the plan could make in achieving your goals.

Benefit from:

A new retirement website. Access all your retirement questions from our new new Montgomery County Public Schools website at <http://mcps.yourplaninfo>.

Convenience. Your contributions are automatically deducted regularly from your paycheck.

Tax savings now. Your pretax contributions are deducted from your pay before income taxes are taken out. This means that you may actually lower the amount of current income taxes withheld each period. It could mean more money in your take-home pay versus saving money in a taxable account.

Tax-deferred savings opportunities. You pay no taxes on any earnings until you withdraw them from your account, enabling you to keep more of your money working for you now.

Investment options. You have the flexibility to select from investment options that range from more conservative to more aggressive, making it easy for you to develop a well-diversified investment portfolio.

Portability. You can roll over eligible savings from a previous employer into this Plan. You can also take your plan account balance with you if you leave your employer.

To learn more about what your plan offers, see "Frequently asked questions about your plan" later in this guide.

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the Plan?

All employees are eligible to participate in the 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan, participation is voluntary.

How do I enroll in the Plan?

Please complete the 457(b) Enrollment/Beneficiary Designation form at the back of this brochure and return to Fidelity Investments in the postage paid envelope. Next complete the Salary Deferral Agreement through PONY or mail to the Employee and Retiree Service Center, 7361 Calhoun Place, Suite 190, Rockville, Maryland 20855. Generally contributions begin 1 month following return of the paperwork.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deduction, you can contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax basis, up to the annual IRS dollar limits.

What are the IRS contribution limits?

If you are under age 50, the IRS contribution limit is $16,500 for 2009. If you will be at least age 50 during the year, your plan may allow you to defer an additional $5,500 as catch-up contributions.

Does MCPS contribute to my 457(b)?

No, MCPS does not contribute to, or match a percentage of your 457(b) contributions. MCPS provides retirement benefits through the defined benefit retirement or pension plan.

What are my investment options?

To help you meet your investment goals, the Plan offers you a range of options. You can select a mix of investment options that best suits your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. The many investment options available through the Plan include conservative, moderately conservative, and aggressive funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online at Fidelity NetBenefits®.

The Plan also offers the Fidelity Freedom Funds® that offer a blend of stocks, bonds and short-term investments within a single fund. Each Freedom Fund's asset allocation is based on the number of years until the fund's target retirement date. The Freedom Funds are designed for investors who want a simple approach to investing for retirement.

When am I vested?

You are always 100% vested in your MCPS 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan.

Can I take a loan from my account?

Although your plan account is intended for the future, you may borrow from your account for any reason. Generally, the MCPS 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan allows you to borrow up to 50% of your account balance in both plans. The minimum loan amount is $1,000, and a loan must not exceed $50,000. You then pay the money back into your account, plus interest, through the Automated Clearing House (ACH) Service in monthly after-tax installments from your bank account. Any outstanding loan balances over the previous 12 months may reduce the amount you have available to borrow. You may have one loan outstanding at a time with Fidelity Investments. The cost to initiate a loan is $25.00, and there is a quarterly maintenance fee of $3.75. The initiation and maintenance fees will be deducted directly from your individual plan account. Be sure you understand the Plan guidelines before you initiate a loan from your plan account.

To learn more about or request a loan, log on to www.fidelity.com/atwork or call the Fidelity Representatives at 1-800-343-0860.

Can I make withdrawals from my account?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted when you terminate your employment, retire, or have severe financial hardship as defined by your Plan. Keep in mind that withdrawals are subject to income taxes and possibly to early withdrawal penalties.

The taxable portion of your withdrawal that is eligible for rollover into an individual retirement account (IRA) or another employer's retirement plan is subject to 20% mandatory federal income tax withholding, unless it is rolled directly over to an IRA or another employer plan. (You may owe more or less when you file your income taxes.)

To learn more about and/or to request a withdrawal, log on to Fidelity NetBenefits at www.fidelity.com/atwork or call the Fidelity Representatives at 1-800-343-0860. The plan document and current tax laws and regulations will govern in case of a discrepancy. Be sure you understand the tax consequences and your plan's rules for distributions before you initiate a distribution. You may want to consult your tax adviser about your situation.

How do I access my account?

You can access your account online through Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.fidelity.com/atwork or call the Fidelity Representatives at 1-800-343-0860 to speak with a representative or use the automated voice response system, virtually 24 hours, 7 days a week.

How do I update my mail preferences?

Receiving communication by email offers you greater convenience and will help keep you up to date on topics related to your retirement plan. Login to NetBenefits by going to www.fidelity.com/atwork and go to "Your Profile" and click on "email address." Enter your personal email address. Then go to "Mail Preferences" to select which types of communications you wish to receive via email or regular mail.

How do I set-up a confidential consultation with a Fidelity Representative?

To set-up a confidential consultation with a Fidelity Representative, you may call Fidelity's reservation line at 800-642-7131 or go online to www.fidelity.com/atwork/reservations.

How do I obtain additional investment option and account information?

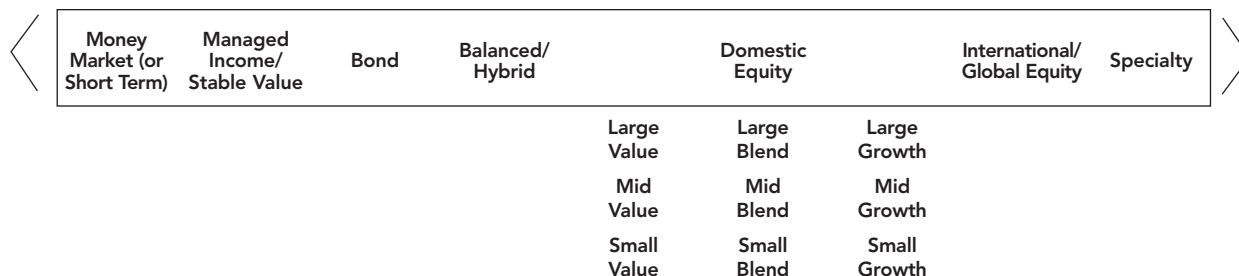

Your Employer has appointed Fidelity to provide additional information on the investment options available through the Plan. Also, a statement of your account may be requested by phone at 1-800-343-0860 or reviewed online at Fidelity NetBenefits®.

Descriptions of the investment options available through your plan are provided on the following pages. For more details about these investment options (including fund performance) and information about diversification, go to www.fidelity.com/atwork and log on to NetBenefits,[®] or call 1-800-343-0860.

Shown below is a look at the categories of investment options offered by your plan, ranked by potential risk and reward.

Categories to the left have potentially more inflation risk and less investment risk

Categories to the right have potentially less inflation risk and more investment risk

Last categorization date 12/31/2008.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of the date indicated. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. The spectrum does not represent actual or implied performance.

Funds to the left have potentially more inflation risk and less investment risk

Life Cycle Funds

Funds to the right have potentially less inflation risk and more investment risk

The lifecycle investment options are represented on a separate spectrum because each investment option (except the income fund, if applicable) will gradually adjust its asset allocation to be more conservative as the investment option approaches and moves beyond its target retirement date. Generally, those investment options with later target retirement dates have greater equity exposure and more risk than those with earlier target retirement dates.

Fidelity Asset Manager[®] Funds offer a blend of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments within a single fund. They are designed for investors who don't want to go through the process of picking several funds from the three asset classes but who still want to diversify among stocks, bonds, and short-term investments.

Funds to the left have potentially more inflation risk and less investment risk

Asset Allocation Funds

Funds to the right have potentially less inflation risk and more investment risk

The portfolio manager of each of the Fidelity Asset Manager[®] funds has the flexibility to periodically shift investments among the three asset classes (stock, bond, short-term investments), depending on the current outlook for the various markets. The risk levels of the Fidelity Asset Manager[®] funds cannot be portrayed as a single point on the objective spectrum along with the other investment options because they can change periodically according to how the assets are invested. Placement of each Fidelity Asset Manager fund on this spectrum is in relation to the other Fidelity Asset Manager funds, which have different investment strategies. For information on the risks associated with the Fidelity Asset Manager funds, please read the prospectus.

Investment Options

Before investing in any mutual fund, please carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For this and other information, call Fidelity at 1-800-343-0860 or visit www.fidelity.com/atwork for a free prospectus. Read it carefully before you invest.

BOND

Fidelity Ginnie Mae FundFund code: 00015Ticker symbol: FGMNXWhat it is: An income mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide high current income that is consistent with prudent investment risk. In seeking current income, the fund also may consider the potential for capital gain.What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in Ginnie Maes. The fund also may invest in other U.S. Government securities and instruments related to U.S. Government securities. The fund is managed to have similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital GNMA Index. Investments in the fund are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency. Investments in mortgage securities are subject to prepayment risk, which can limit the potential for gain during a declining interest rate environment and increase the potential for loss in a rising interest rate environment. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who seeks current income at a rate potentially higher than might be found in a money market investment, and who is willing to accept more fluctuation in share price.
- Someone who wants to balance an investment portfolio that has other, more aggressive, growth-oriented investments.

The Barclays Capital GNMA Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of fixed-rate securities that represent interests in pools of mortgage loans with original terms of 15 and 30 years, and that are issued by the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA).

Fidelity Government Income Fund

Fund code: 00054

Ticker symbol: FGOVX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income consistent with preservation of principal.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in U.S. Government securities and in instruments related to U.S. Government securities. The fund is managed to have similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital Government Bond Index. The fund may invest in securities of any maturity. Interest rate increases can cause the prices of a debt security to decrease. The ability of an issuer of a debt security to repay principal prior to maturity can limit the potential for gain during a declining interest rate environment and increase the potential for loss in a rising interest rate environment. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Investments in the fund are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking for high current income.
- Someone who feels more comfortable with a fund because it invests mainly in securities issued by the U.S. Government and its agencies or instrumentalities.

The Barclays Capital Government Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of U.S. Government and government agency securities (other than mortgage securities) with maturities of one year or more.

Fidelity Institutional Short-Intermediate Government Fund

Fund code: 00662

Ticker symbol: FFXSX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income that is consistent with the preservation of principal.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in U.S. Government or related securities. The fund attempts to maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity between two and five years, and is managed to have a similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital 1-5 Year Government Bond Index. Investments in the fund are not guaranteed or insured by the U.S. Government or by the FDIC. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking for income.
- Someone who hopes to reduce the price fluctuation of bond investing by investing in a fund with relatively short maturity.

The Barclays Capital 1-5 Year Government Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted performance benchmark for government fixed-rate debt issues with maturities between one and five years.

Fidelity Intermediate Bond Fund

Fund code: 00032

Ticker symbol: FTHRX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in investment-grade debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities (those of medium and high quality). The fund is managed to have an overall interest rate risk similar to the Barclays Capital Intermediate Government/Credit Bond Index. The fund will normally maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity between three and 10 years. Assets are allocated across different market sectors and maturities. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants the potential for income or is looking to diversify a growth-oriented portfolio with a more conservative bond fund.
- Someone interested in investing in bonds.

The Barclays Capital Intermediate Government/Credit Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of investment-grade fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities, with maturities between one and ten years.

Fidelity Intermediate Government Income Fund

Fund code: 00452

Ticker symbol: FSTGX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income consistent with the preservation of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in U.S. Government securities. The fund also may invest in instruments related to U.S. Government securities. The fund is managed to have a similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital Intermediate Government Bond Index. The fund will normally maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity between three and 10 years. The fund may invest in securities of any maturity. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. The fund's investments in mortgage securities are subject to prepayment risk, which can lower the fund's yield particularly in periods of declining interest rates. Investments in the fund are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking for high current income.
- Someone who feels more comfortable with a fund because it invests mainly in securities issued by the U.S. Government and its agencies or instrumentalities.

The Barclays Capital Intermediate Government Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of U.S. Government fixed-rate debt issues with maturities between one and 10 years.

Fidelity Investment Grade Bond Fund

Fund code: 00026

Ticker symbol: FBNDX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in investment-grade debt securities of all types, and in repurchase agreements for those securities. The fund is managed to have a similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index. Assets are allocated across different market sectors and ranges of maturity. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking to balance a growth-oriented portfolio.
- Someone who wants the potential for income.

The Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of investment-grade, fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities, with maturities of one year or more.

Fidelity Mortgage Securities Fund

Fund code: 00040

Ticker symbol: FMSFX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income that is consistent with prudent investment risk. In seeking current income, the fund also may consider the potential for capital gain.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in investment-grade, mortgage-related securities (those of medium and high quality). The fund may invest in U.S. Government securities and instruments related to U.S. Government securities. The fund is managed to have a similar interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital Mortgage-Backed Securities Index. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Investments in the fund are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency. Investments in mortgage securities are subject to prepayment risk, which can limit the potential for gain during a declining interest rate environment and increase the potential for loss in a rising interest rate environment. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in a wide variety of mortgage-related securities.
- Someone looking for current income and some growth in the value of his or her investment, and who is willing to take additional investment risk.

The Barclays Capital Mortgage-Backed Securities Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of 15- and 30-year fixed-rate securities backed by mortgage pools of the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae), Fannie Mae and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLMC), and by balloon mortgages with fixed-rate coupons.

Fidelity Short-Term Bond Fund

Fund code: 00450

Ticker symbol: FSHBX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income that is consistent with the preservation of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in investment-grade debt securities of all types, and repurchase agreements for those securities. The fund is managed to have similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital 1-3 Year Government/Credit Bond Index. The fund will normally maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity of three years or less. The fund's assets are allocated across different market sectors and maturities. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking for more income than that of a money market investment, and who is willing to accept less stability of share price.
- Someone who wants to invest in bonds but who prefers to reduce his or her investment risk by staying with those of relatively short maturity.

The Barclays Capital 1-3 Year Government/Credit Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of government and investment-grade, corporate fixed-rate debt issues, with maturities between one and three years.

Fidelity Strategic Income Fund

Fund code: 00368

Ticker symbol: FSICX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income. The fund may also seek capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in debt securities, including lower-quality debt. The fund allocates its assets among four general investment categories using a neutral mix of approximately 40% high yield, 30% U.S. Government and investment-grade, 15% emerging markets, and 15% foreign developed markets. The fund may potentially invest in equity securities. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who seeks high current income, with some potential for capital growth, from a portfolio of debt instruments and income-producing equity securities.
- Someone who understands the potential risk and rewards of investing in lower-quality debt securities, including defaulted securities.

Fidelity Total Bond Fund

Fund code: 00820

Ticker symbol: FTBFX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in debt securities of all types, and in repurchase agreements for those securities. The fund uses the Barclays Capital U.S. Universal Index as a guide in allocating its assets across the investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market asset classes, and in managing the fund's overall interest rate risk. The fund may invest in domestic and foreign issuers. The fund allocates its assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Fidelity Management & Research Company (FMR) analyzes a security's structural features and current pricing, trading opportunities, the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, and the credit, currency and economic risk of the security and the issuer, to select investments. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a debt security to decrease. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone with an intermediate to long-term time horizon.
- Someone seeking broad fixed income exposure to the U.S. dollar-denominated bond market.
- Income-oriented investors with a slightly higher risk tolerance.

The Barclays Capital U.S. Universal Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted performance benchmark for the U.S. dollar-denominated bond market, which includes investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market debt securities with maturities of one year or more.

Fidelity U.S. Bond Index Fund

Fund code: 00651

Ticker symbol: FBIDX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of the bonds in the Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in bonds included in the Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who hopes to match the performance of the overall bond market as measured by the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index.
- Investors who are looking for a higher return than a money market fund, and who are willing to accept the greater investment risk of bonds of companies and government agencies.

The Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index of investment-grade fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities, with maturities of one year or more.

Fidelity Ultra-Short Bond Fund

Fund code: 00812

Ticker symbol: FUSFX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to obtain a high level of current income consistent with preservation of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in investment-grade debt securities of all types, and in repurchase agreements for those securities. The fund also invests in U.S. dollar-denominated money market securities, and in shares of a Fidelity short-term bond fund. The fund will also invest more than 25% of its assets in the financial services industries. The fund is managed to have similar overall interest rate risk to that of the Barclays Capital 6 Month Swap Index, and will normally maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity of two years or less. Interest rate increases can cause the prices of a debt security to decrease. Changes in government regulations and interest rates and economic downturns can have a significant negative effect on issuers in the financial services sector. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. The ability of an issuer of a debt security to repay principal prior to maturity can limit the potential for gain during a declining interest rate environment and increase the potential for loss in a rising interest rate environment. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 60 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.25% of the value of the shares sold. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants a conservative short-term bond investment for income, and who is willing to accept some share price fluctuation.
- Someone who wants an income investment option that falls between a money market fund and a short-term bond fund.

The Barclays Capital 6 Month Swap Index is an unmanaged principal-weighted index of swaps with 6-month maturity.

Spartan® Intermediate Treasury Bond Index Fund Investor ClassFund code: 01561Ticker symbol: FIBIXWhat it is: An income mutual fund.Goal: The fund seeks a high level of current income.What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in securities included in the Barclays Capital 5-10 Year U.S. Treasury Bond Index. Normally maintains a dollar-weighted average maturity of three to 10 years. Uses statistical sampling techniques based on duration, maturity, interest rate sensitivity, security structure and credit quality. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. The ability of an issuer of a debt security to repay principal prior to a security's maturity can cause greater price volatility if interest rates change. Duration estimates how much a bond's price fluctuates with changes in comparable interest rates. Share price, yield and return will vary.Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking to diversify a growth oriented portfolio with a more conservative investment option.
- Someone who wants the potential for income.

BOND HIGH YIELD

Fidelity Capital & Income Fund

Fund code: 00038

Ticker symbol: FAGIX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a combination of income and capital growth.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in equity and debt securities, including defaulted securities, with an emphasis on lower-quality debt securities. The fund invests in companies in troubled or uncertain financial condition. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. In general, bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who understands the greater investment risk involved in lower-quality securities, and who is willing to take more investment risk than is generally associated with bond funds.
 - Someone who plans to invest long term.

Fidelity Floating Rate High Income Fund

Fund code: 00814

Ticker symbol: FFRHX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in floating rate loans (which are often lower-quality debt securities), and other floating rate securities. Floating rate securities have interest payments that reset periodically. The fund may invest in money market and investment-grade debt securities, in repurchase agreements, and in shares of other funds. The fund may invest in companies in troubled or uncertain financial condition, including those that may be involved in bankruptcy proceedings, reorganizations, or financial restructuring. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Investments in lower-quality (high yield, below investment grade) debt involve greater risk of price changes and default. Floating rate loans may be subject to restrictions on resale and may not be fully collateralized, which may cause their value to decline significantly. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a debt security to decrease, although the value of floating rate securities tends to change less with changes in interest rates over the long run than that of other types of debt securities. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 60 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to take more investment risk than is generally associated with bond funds and more diversified funds, for the possibility of potentially higher returns over the long-term.
 - Someone who understands and accepts the greater investment risk involved with a high income fund investing in lower-quality, below-investment-grade loans and debt securities, potentially of companies with financial difficulties.
 - Someone who is willing to accept greater share price fluctuation of lower-quality debt, while recognizing that because of the periodic resetting (floating) of interest payments, the value of floating rate debt may change less than other types of debt over the long-term, when interest rates change.

Fidelity Focused High Income Fund

Fund code: 01366

Ticker symbol: FHIFX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks a high level of current income. The fund may also seek capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests in income-producing debt securities, preferred stocks, and convertible securities, with an emphasis on lower-quality debt securities. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may also invest its assets in non-income producing securities, including defaulted securities and common stocks. The fund normally invests its assets primarily in securities rated BB by S&P, Ba by Moody's, comparably rated by at least one nationally recognized credit rating agency, or, if unrated, considered by FMR to be of comparable quality. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who understands the greater investment risk involved in lower-quality securities, and who is willing to take more investment risk than is generally associated with bond funds.
- Someone who plans to invest for the long term.

Fidelity High Income Fund

Fund code: 00455

Ticker symbol: SPHIX

What it is: An income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income. Growth of capital may also be considered.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in income-producing debt securities, preferred stocks, and convertible securities, with an emphasis on lower-quality debt securities. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may potentially invest in non-income-producing securities, including defaulted securities and common stocks. The fund may invest in companies in troubled or uncertain financial condition. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a debt security to decrease. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who plans to invest for the long term.
- Someone who understands the greater investment risk involved in lower-quality securities, and who is willing to take more investment risk than is generally associated with bond funds.

BOND
INTERNATIONAL/GLOBAL

Fidelity New Markets Income Fund

Fund code: 00331

Ticker symbol: FNMIX

What it is: A bond mutual fund that invests internationally.

Goal: Seeks to provide high current income. As a secondary objective the fund seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in debt securities of issuers in emerging markets. The fund may potentially invest in other types of securities, including equity securities of emerging market issuers, debt securities of non-emerging market foreign issuers, and lower-quality debt securities of U.S. issuers. The fund may invest up to 35% of its assets in these securities, but does not anticipate that these investments will exceed 20% of the fund's assets. The fund normally diversifies investments across different emerging market countries. The fund is considered non-diversified as to issuer and may invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Interest rate increases can cause the prices of a debt security to decrease. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who believes that smaller, less developed countries may offer higher potential for income and growth than do other countries, and who is willing to accept the high investment risk involved.
- Someone who wants to complement the performance of U.S. investments with investments overseas, which may behave quite differently, and who is comfortable with the greater investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing overseas, as well as with the investment risk involved in any income mutual fund.

BOND

INFLATION-PROTECTED

Fidelity Inflation-Protected Bond FundFund code: 00794Ticker symbol: FINPXWhat it is: An income mutual fund.Goal: Seeks a total return that exceeds the rate of inflation over the long term.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in inflation-protected debt securities of all types and maturities, primarily U.S. dollar-denominated issues with a current focus on U.S. Treasury inflation-protected securities. Investments may also include inflation-protected debt of U.S. Government agencies and instrumentalities and of other entities, such as corporations and foreign governments, as well as non-inflation-protected debt and related instruments. The value of inflation-protected debt securities tends to change less due to changes in inflation than other types of bonds but may decrease with decreases in inflation or, as with other debt securities, with increases in interest rates. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants a portion of their investments to keep pace with changes in the future prices of consumer products and services.
- Someone who has other investments for growth and income, and who wants additional diversification with an inflation-protected bond fund.
- Someone who wants current income that varies with inflation, and who plans to hold this fund long term to achieve inflation protection for his or her investment.

BALANCED/HYBRID

Fidelity Balanced FundFund code: 00304Ticker symbol: FBALXWhat it is: A balanced mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide income and capital growth consistent with reasonable risk.

What it invests in: Primarily invests 60% of its assets in stocks and other equity securities, and the remainder in bonds and other debt securities, including lower-quality debt securities, when the outlook for the markets is neutral. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund will invest at least 25% of its assets in fixed income senior securities (including debt securities and preferred stocks). The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in a fund that selects both stocks and bonds.
- Someone who wants the potential of both income and long-term growth, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.

Fidelity Dynamic StrategiesSM FundFund code: 01960Ticker symbol: FDYSXWhat it is: An asset allocation mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to maximize total return.

What it invests in: The fund allocates assets among stocks of all types, including domestic, international and emerging-market equities; bonds, including investment grade bonds, high yield and inflation-protected bonds and floating-rate bonds; and short-term and money market instruments maturing in one year or less. The fund may also make investments that do not fall in the above asset classes. The fund gains exposure to each asset class primarily by investing in a combination of Fidelity funds and unaffiliated exchange-traded funds (ETFs), although it may also invest directly in individual securities. The fund will generally allocate between and among asset classes within the following ranges: stocks (20%-80%), bonds (10%-70%) and short-term and money market instruments (0%-20%). Allocation decisions will be made using economic research, quantitative analysis, fundamental research and technical analysis. From time to time, substantially all the fund's assets may be allocated to either the stock or bond class. The fund is subject to asset allocation risk and the risks of the underlying funds in which it invests. Those risks include the volatility of the financial markets in the U.S. and abroad, risks associated with investing in particular countries or regions, or industries or groups of industries, and risks associated with investments in debt securities. If the fund's asset allocation strategy does not work as intended, the fund might not achieve its objective. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is comfortable with a fund that can shift the allocation of its assets from stocks to bonds to short-term and money market instruments in seeking total return.
- Someone who is seeking total return from income and capital appreciation.

Fidelity Puritan® Fund

Fund code: 00004

Ticker symbol: FPURX

What it is: A balanced mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide income and capital growth consistent with reasonable risk.

What it invests in: Primarily invests approximately 60% of its assets in stocks and other equity securities, and the remainder in bonds and other debt securities, including lower-quality debt securities, when the outlook for the markets is neutral. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund will invest at least 25% of its assets in fixed income senior securities (including debt securities and preferred stocks). The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in a fund that selects both stocks and bonds.
- Someone who wants the potential of both income and long-term growth, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.

Fidelity Strategic Real Return Fund

Fund code: 01505

Ticker symbol: FSRRX

What it is: A multi asset class mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide total return in excess of expected inflation, consistent with reasonable investment risk.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in four general asset categories with the following targeted allocations: 30% in inflation-protected debt securities, 25% in floating-rate loans, 25% in commodity-linked notes and related investments, and 20% in real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other real estate related investments. By allocating investments across different types of securities, FMR attempts to moderate the significant risks of each category through diversification. Interest rate risks may cause the price of a debt security to decrease. In addition, there are risks unique to the investments that this fund invests in. Floating rate loans are subject to restrictions on resale, price changes, and greater risk of default. REITs are affected by changes in real estate values or economic conditions, which can have a positive or negative effect on issuers in the real estate industry. Commodity-linked investments may be affected by overall commodities market movements and other factors that affect the value of a particular industry or commodity. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 60 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.75% of the value of the shares sold. Share price, return and yield will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone interested in an investment option that allows the fund manager some flexibility in allocating investments among a number of asset categories.
- Someone interested in a fixed income investment that is structured to provide protection against inflation.

BALANCED/HYBRID
INTERNATIONAL*Fidelity Global Balanced Fund*Fund code: 00334Ticker symbol: FGBLXWhat it is: A growth and income mutual fund that invests globally, including the U.S.Goal: Seeks to provide income and capital growth consistent with reasonable risk.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in equity and debt securities, including lower-quality debt securities issued anywhere in the world. Invests at least 25% of its assets in fixed-income senior securities (including debt securities and preferred stock). Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 30 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in companies in the U.S., as well as in companies overseas, which may behave quite differently.
- Someone who wants to invest in both stocks and bonds, from issuers around the world.
- Someone who is comfortable with the high investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing overseas, especially in emerging markets, as well as with the investment risk involved in any balanced mutual fund.

BALANCED/HYBRID
CONVERTIBLES*Fidelity Convertible Securities Fund*Fund code: 00308Ticker symbol: FCVSXWhat it is: A growth and income mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide high total return through a combination of current income and capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in convertible securities, which are often lower-quality debt securities. Convertible securities perform more like a stock when the underlying share price is high, and more like a bond when the underlying share price is low. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may potentially invest in other types of securities, including common stocks. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to ride out stock market fluctuation while seeking long-term growth potential.
- Someone who wants to earn income but who also wants a growth investment that may involve less investment risk and less potential for growth than a pure growth fund might.

DOMESTIC EQUITY
LARGE VALUE*Fidelity Blue Chip Value Fund*Fund code: 01271Ticker symbol: FBCVXWhat it is: A growth mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks of well-known and established companies. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its assets in blue chip companies (companies whose stock is included in the Standard & Poor's 500 Index or the Dow Jones Industrial Average, and companies with market capitalizations of at least $1 billion if not included in either index). Invests in securities of companies that the manager believes are undervalued in the marketplace in relation to factors such as assets, sales, earnings, growth potential, or cash flow, or in relation to securities of other companies in the same industry (stocks of these companies are often called "value" stocks). The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone interested in investing in a portfolio consisting of well-known, established companies.
- Someone looking for a value-style building block for a core portfolio to help build wealth over time.
- Someone that desires a stock fund without excessive volatility. Value stocks tend to have slower and more stable earnings growth rates than more aggressive growth funds.

Fidelity Equity-Income Fund

Fund code: 00023

Ticker symbol: FEQIX

What it is: A growth and income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide reasonable income. In pursuing this objective, the fund will also consider the potential for capital appreciation. The fund seeks to provide a yield that exceeds the composite yield of the S&P 500® Index.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in income-producing equity securities, which tends to lead to investments in large cap "value" stocks. The fund may potentially invest in other types of equity and debt securities, including lower-quality debt securities. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is looking for income from a fund invested in stocks and bonds.
- Someone who wants to invest in the stock market for its long-term growth potential.

Fund code: 02063

Ticker symbol: FOTTX

What it is: A growth mutual fund that establishes both long and short positions in equity securities.

Goal: Seeks long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: Normally invests 80% of assets in common stocks of companies with large market capitalizations, establishing long and short positions in equity securities of both domestic and foreign issuers. It will normally target long positions of 130% of the fund's net assets and short positions of 30% for a net long exposure of approximately 100%, but the fund may vary from these targets. The fund has the ability to invest in 'growth' or 'value' stocks, or both. The fund will also use both quantitative and fundamental analysis to select investments. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Securities selected using quantitative analysis can perform differently from the market as a whole. Short sales pose more risk than long positions. Because a short position loses value as the security's price increases, the loss on a short sale is theoretically unlimited. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risks. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in a fund that seeks returns from equities that appreciate as well as from equities that depreciate.
- Someone with a conservative portfolio who wants to invest part of his or her money more aggressively.

Fidelity Focused Stock FundFund code: 00333Ticker symbol: FTQGXWhat it is: A growth mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide capital growth.What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in stocks. Normally invests in 30-80 stocks, primarily common stocks. The fund is not constrained by any particular investment style. The fund may invest in "growth" stocks or "value" stocks, or both. The fund invests in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. In selecting stocks, the fund uses computer-aided, quantitative analysis supported by fundamental analysis. Share price and return will vary.Who might want to invest:

- Someone looking to diversify his or her current portfolio with an aggressive long-term growth fund.
- Someone who is interested in growth over the long term, and who is comfortable with the fluctuation of the stock market.

Fidelity Four-in-One Index FundFund code: 00355Ticker symbol: FFNOXWhat it is: An asset allocation fund.Goal: Seeks to provide high total return.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in a combination of four Fidelity stock and bond index funds using an asset allocation strategy designed for investors seeking a broadly diversified, index-based investment. The fund's approximate target asset allocation is 55% in Spartan® 500 Index Fund and 15% each in Spartan® Extended Market Index Fund, Spartan® International Index Fund, and Fidelity U.S. Bond Index Fund. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to complement the performance of U.S. investments with investments overseas, which may behave quite differently.
- Someone who is comfortable with the higher investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing overseas, as well as with the investment risk involved in any growth mutual fund.

Fidelity Fund

Fund code: 00003

Ticker symbol: FFIDX

What it is: A growth and income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide long-term capital growth.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks. The fund may potentially invest a portion of its assets in bonds, including lower-quality debt securities. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to ride out stock market ups and down to seek higher long-term returns.
- Someone who is looking for long-term growth potential and some current income from stock and bond investments.

Fidelity Growth & Income Portfolio

Fund code: 00027

Ticker symbol: FGRIX

What it is: A growth and income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide high total return through a combination of current income and capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests a majority of its assets in common stocks, with a focus on those that pay current dividends and show potential for capital appreciation. The fund may potentially invest in bonds, including lower-quality debt securities, as well as in stocks that are not currently paying dividends, but that offer prospects for future income or capital appreciation. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone interested in a combination of income and growth.
- Someone who wants the potential for long-term growth, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.

Fidelity Large Cap Core Enhanced Index Fund

Fund code: 01827

Ticker symbol: FLCEX

What it is: A portfolio that invests primarily in common stocks.

Goal: Seeks capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the Standard & Poor's 500 Index (S&P 500[®] Index), which is a market capitalization-weighted index of companies with large market capitalizations. Although the fund seeks to beat the index, this is not guaranteed and the fund may trail the index. Generally uses computer-aided quantitative analysis of historical valuation, growth, profitability, and other factors to select a broadly diversified group of stocks that may have the potential to provide a higher total return than that of the S&P 500[®] Index. Invests in domestic and foreign issuers. Securities selected using quantitative analysis can perform differently from the market as a whole. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone willing to ride out stock market fluctuation for potentially high long-term returns.
- Someone who wants to invest in a fund that uses computer-aided stock selection to enhance its quantitative analysis and fundamental research.

The Standard & Poor's 500 Index (S&P 500® Index) is an unmanaged market capitalization-weighted index of 500 common stocks chosen for market size, liquidity, and industry group representation to represent U.S. equity performance.

Fidelity Mega Cap Stock Fund

Fund code: 00361

Ticker symbol: FGRTX

What it is: A growth and income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide high total return through a combination of current income and capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in common stocks of companies with mega market capitalizations. Although a universal definition of mega market capitalization companies does not exist, for purposes of this fund, Fidelity Management & Research Co. (FMRCo) generally defines it as those companies whose market capitalization is similar to the market capitalization of companies in the Russell Top 200® Index or the S&P 100® Index, currently or at the time of the fund's investment. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone interested in a combination of income and growth.
- Someone who wants the potential for long-term growth, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.

The Russell Top 200® Index is a market capitalization-weighted index of stocks of the 200 largest companies in the Russell 3000® Index of the 3,000 largest U.S.-domiciled companies. The Standard & Poor's 100 Index (S&P 100® Index) is a market capitalization-weighted index composed of 100 leading U.S. stocks with exchange-listed options. The stocks in the S&P 100® Index are generally among the largest and most established companies in the S&P 500® Index. Prior to December 1, 2007, the fund was known as the Fidelity Growth & Income II Portfolio.

Fidelity Strategic Dividend & Income® Fund

Fund code: 01329

Ticker symbol: FSDIX

What it is: A growth and income mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide reasonable income. The fund will also consider the potential for capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in equity securities. The fund manager expects to invest the fund's assets with a focus on equity securities that pay current dividends and show potential for capital appreciation. The fund manager allocates the fund's assets among four general investment categories: common stocks, REITs and other real estate related investments, convertible securities, and preferred stocks. The fund manager may also invest the fund's assets in other types of equity securities and debt securities. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants the potential for long-term growth and who is willing to ride out the ups and downs of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.
- Someone interested in a combination of income and growth.

Fidelity Value Discovery Fund

Fund code: 00832

Ticker symbol: FVDFX

What it is: An equity mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks of companies that the manager believes are undervalued in the marketplace in relation to factors such as assets, sales, earnings, growth potential, or cash flow, or in relation to securities of other companies in the same industry (stocks of these companies are often called "value" stocks). The fund may invest in domestic and foreign issuers. The fund uses fundamental analysis of each issuer's financial condition, industry position and market and economic conditions to select investments. The fund potentially uses other investment strategies to increase or decrease the fund's exposure to changing security prices or other factors that affect security values. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone seeking a stock fund that invests in "value" stocks, which tend to be inexpensive relative to their earnings or assets as compared to other types of stocks.
- Someone who wants the potential for long-term capital appreciation, and who is looking to diversify their assets by adding a broad-based, flexible, actively managed value fund to their investment portfolio.

Spartan® 500 Index Fund Investor Class

Fund code: 00317

Ticker symbol: FSMKX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return (i.e., the combination of capital changes and income) of common stocks publicly traded in the U.S., as represented by the S&P 500® Index, while keeping transaction costs and other expenses low.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the S&P 500® Index. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to pursue long-term growth through a portfolio of securities that broadly represents the stock market as measured by the S&P 500® Index.
- Someone willing to ride out stock market fluctuation for potentially high long-term returns.

The S&P 500® Index is a registered service mark of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., and has been licensed for use by Fidelity Distributors Corporation and its affiliates. It is an unmanaged index of the common stock prices of 500 widely held U.S. stocks that includes the reinvestment of dividends.

Spartan® Total Market Index Fund Investor Class

Fund code: 00397

Ticker symbol: FSTMX

What it is: An index mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total returns of a broad range of U.S. stocks.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the Wilshire 5000 Total Market Index, which represents the performance of a broad range of U.S. stocks. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.50% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to pursue growth of capital through a portfolio of securities that broadly represent a specific market.
- Someone who is willing to ride out stock market fluctuation in pursuit of potentially high long-term returns.

The Wilshire 5000 Total Market Index (Wilshire 5000) is an unmanaged, market-capitalization weighted index of approximately 7,000 U.S. equity securities and includes reinvestment of dividends.

Spartan® U.S. Equity Index Fund Investor Class

Fund code: 00650

Ticker symbol: FUSEX

What it is: An index mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return (i.e., the combination of capital changes and income) performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the S&P 500® Index, which broadly represents the performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to pursue long-term growth through a portfolio of securities that broadly represent the stock market as measured by the S&P 500® Index.
- Someone willing to ride out stock market fluctuations for potentially high long-term return.

DOMESTIC EQUITY MID BLEND

Fidelity Leveraged Company Stock Fund

Fund code: 00122

Ticker symbol: FLVCX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks of leveraged companies (companies that issue lower-quality debt and companies with leveraged capital structures). The fund may also invest in lower-quality debt securities. Issuers of lower-quality debt and companies with leveraged capital structures may be in adverse, difficult, or uncertain financial condition, and may be involved in bankruptcy proceedings, reorganizations, or financial restructuring. Leverage can magnify the impact of adverse issuer, political, regulator, market, or economic developments on a company. A decrease in the credit quality of a highly leveraged company can lead to a significant decrease in the value of the company's securities. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1.5% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to accept greater share-price fluctuation, and who plans to invest for the long term.
- Someone who is willing to take more investment risk than is generally associated with stock funds, including the risk from investing in non-diversified investments.
- Someone who understands, and who is willing to accept the greater investment risk involved in securities of companies with leveraged capital structures or that issue lower-quality debt, which may include companies with financial difficulties.

Fidelity Low-Priced Stock Fund

Fund code: 00316

Ticker symbol: FLPSX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in low-priced stocks (those priced at or below $35 per share), which can lead to investments in small and medium-sized companies. The fund may potentially invest in stocks not considered low priced. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risk than those of larger, more well known companies. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. The fund may invest in "growth" or "value" stocks, or both. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1.5% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is comfortable taking the increased investment risk that comes with investing in smaller, lesser-known companies, and who can invest over the long term.
- Someone with a conservative portfolio who is interested in investing part of his or her money more aggressively.

Fidelity Mid Cap Enhanced Index Fund

Fund code: 02012

Ticker symbol: FMEIX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the Russell Midcap® Index, which is a market capitalization-weighted index of companies with medium market capitalizations. Generally uses computer-aided, quantitative analysis of historical valuation, growth, profitability, and other factors to select a broadly diversified group of stocks that may have the potential to provide a higher total return than that of the Russell Midcap® Index. Although the fund seeks to beat the index, this is not guaranteed, and the fund may trail the index. Securities selected using quantitative analysis can perform differently from the market as a whole. Investments in mid-sized companies may involve greater risk than those in larger, more well known companies, but may be less volatile than investments in smaller companies. The fund may invest in domestic and foreign issuers. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. If you sell your shares after holding them for less than 30 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.75% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone whose money will be invested over the long term, and who is comfortable with the fluctuation of investing in the stock market and wants to invest in a fund that uses computer-aided stock selection to enhance its quantitative analysis and fundamental research.
- Someone who wants to focus on medium-capitalization stocks in search of above-average returns.

The Russell MidCap® Index is an unmanaged index that measures the performance of the 800 smallest companies in the Russell 1000® Index, which represent approximately 26% of the total market capitalization of the Russell 1000® Index.

Fidelity Value Strategies Fund

Fund code: 00014

Ticker symbol: FLSX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks of companies that the manager believes are undervalued in the marketplace in relation to factors such as the company's assets, sales, earnings, or growth potential (stocks of these companies are often called 'value' stocks). The fund focuses its investments in securities issued by medium-sized companies, but may also invest substantially in securities issued by larger or smaller companies. The fund may invest its assets in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. 'Value' stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Investments in medium-sized companies may involve greater risk than those in larger, more well known companies, but may be less volatile than investments in smaller companies. Foreign markets can be more volatile than the U.S. market due to increased risks of adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments and can perform differently from the U.S. market. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone willing to accept that the value of securities of medium-sized and small companies can be more volatile than that of larger issuers.
- Someone who wants the potential for long-term growth, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of a higher return.

Spartan® Extended Market Index Fund Investor Class

Fund code: 00398

Ticker symbol: FSEMX

What it is: An index mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total returns of stocks of small to mid-cap U.S. companies.

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the Wilshire 4500 Completion Index, which represents the performance of stocks of small to mid-capitalization U.S. companies. Investments in smaller companies may involve more risk than those of larger, more well known companies. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.75% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to pursue growth of capital through a portfolio of securities that broadly represent a specific market.
- Someone who is willing to ride out stock market fluctuation in pursuit of potentially high long-term returns.

The Dow Jones Wilshire 4500 Completion Index (Wilshire 4500) is an unmanaged index that represents all U.S. equity issues with readily available prices, excluding components of the S&P 500.

Ticker symbol: FEXPX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks, including "growth" and "value" stocks, or both. Normally invests in securities of U.S. companies that are expected to benefit from exporting or selling their goods or services outside the United States. Export and multinational companies can be significantly affected by political, economic, and regulatory developments in foreign markets. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. The fund may potentially invest in securities of foreign issuers and companies that are not export or multinational companies. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 30 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.75% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is comfortable with investing for the long term.
- Someone who is willing to ride out stock market fluctuations for potentially high long-term returns.

Fidelity Fifty®

Fund code: 00500

Ticker symbol: FFTYX

What it is: A growth mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks of companies that the manager believes have the greatest potential for growth. The fund normally invests in 50-60 stocks of both domestic and foreign issuers. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who feels comfortable focusing on a relatively small number of stocks.
- Someone who plans to invest for the long-term, and who is comfortable with the possibility that a change in the value of a single stock may have significant impact on the fund's share price.

Fidelity Large Cap Growth Enhanced Index FundFund code: 01829Ticker symbol: FLGEXWhat it is: A portfolio that invests primarily in common stocks.Goal: Seeks capital appreciation

What it invests in: Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks included in the Russell 1000[®] Growth Index, which is a market capitalization-weighted index of companies with large market capitalizations. Generally uses computer-aided quantitative analysis of historical valuation, growth, profitability, and other factors to select a broadly diversified group of stocks that may have the potential to provide a higher total return than that of the Russell 1000[®] Growth Index. Although the fund seeks to beat the index, this is not guaranteed and the fund may trail the index. Securities selected using quantitative analysis can perform differently from the market as a whole. Invests in domestic and foreign issuers. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to invest in a fund that uses computer-aided stock selection to enhance its quantitative analysis and fundamental research.
- Someone who is comfortable with the volatility of growth style and large-cap stocks, in addition to the overall risk of investing in the stock market.

The Russell 1000[®] Growth Index is an unmanaged market capitalization-weighted index of those stocks of the 1,000 largest U.S.-domiciled companies that exhibit growth-oriented characteristics.

Fidelity Large Cap Growth FundFund code: 00763Ticker symbol: FSLGXWhat it is: A growth mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of companies with large market capitalizations (those with market capitalizations similar to companies in the Russell 1000[®] Index or the S&P 500[®] Index). The fund invests in companies its manager believes to have above-average growth potential. The stocks of these companies are often called "growth" stocks. The fund uses the Russell 1000[®] Growth Index as a guide in structuring the fund and for selecting its investments. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is comfortable with the volatility of growth style and large-cap stocks, in addition to the overall risk of investing in the stock market.

Fidelity Magellan® FundFund code: 00021Ticker symbol: FMAGXWhat it is: A growth mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in common stocks. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. The fund manager is not constrained by any particular investment style. At any given time, the fund manager may tend to buy "growth" stocks or "value" stocks, or a combination of both types. In buying and selling securities for the fund, the manager relies on fundamental analysis of each issuer and its potential for success in light of its current financial condition, its industry position, and economic and market conditions. Factors considered include growth potential, earnings estimates, and management. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who will be invested in the fund over the long term, and who is willing to ride out the fluctuation of the stock market for the potential of higher long-term returns.
- Someone with a conservative portfolio who is interested in investing a portion of money more aggressively.

What it is: A mutual fund primarily investing in international (non-U.S.) securities.

Goal: Seeks long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: The fund normally invests in common stocks of foreign issuers, including securities of issuers located in emerging markets. Additionally, the fund primarily invests in companies believed to have above average growth potential. The fund will allocate investments across countries and regions. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. If you sell your shares after holding them for less than 30 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to help diversify his-her portfolio with foreign investments.
- Someone who seeks long-term growth of capital.

Fidelity International Small Cap Fund

Fund code: 00818

Ticker symbol: FISMX

What it is: A growth mutual fund that invests internationally.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in foreign securities (primarily common stocks), including securities of issuers located in emerging markets. Normally invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of companies with small market capitalizations (currently those companies whose capitalization is $5 billion or less at the time of investment by the fund). Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risk than those in larger, more well known companies. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 2% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is comfortable with the high investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing outside the U.S in small, lesser-known companies, including those in emerging market countries.
- Someone who wants to complement the performance of U.S. stock investments with investments in smaller companies located in foreign countries, which may behave quite differently.
- Someone who is able to invest for the long term, and who can ride out the potentially greater ups and downs of a fund that invests in smaller company stocks in foreign markets.

Fidelity International Small Cap Opportunities Fund

Fund code: 01504

Ticker symbol: FSCOX

What it is: An international/global equity mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Primarily invests in non-U.S. common stocks, including those securities located in emerging markets. Normally invests 80% of the fund's assets in companies with market capitalizations of $5 billion or less. Allocates investments across countries and regions considering the size of the market in each country and region relative to the size of the international market as a whole. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risks than those in larger, more well known companies. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 2% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to ride out the ups and downs of the stock market for the potential of higher returns and who is comfortable with the risks involved with investing overseas.
- Someone who wants to complement the performance of U.S. investments with overseas investments, which can behave differently.

Fidelity International Value Fund

Fund code: 01597

Ticker symbol: FIVLX

What it is: A value mutual fund that invests internationally.

Goal: Seeks capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally investing primarily in non-U.S. securities, including securities of issuers located in emerging markets. Invests in securities of companies believed to be undervalued in the marketplace in relation to factors such as assets, sales, earnings, growth potential, or cash flow, or in relation to other companies in the same industry. FMR considers traditional and other measures of value, such as price/book (P/B) ratio, price/sales (P/S) ratio, price/earnings (P/E) ratio, earnings relative to enterprise value (the total value of a company's outstanding equity and debt) and the discounted value of a company's projected future free cash flows. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. There is a short-term trading fee of 1% for shares held less than 30 days. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is willing to accept the higher degree of risk associated with investing overseas in exchange for potentially higher returns.
- Someone who wants to complement the performance of domestic investments with overseas investments, which can behave differently.

Fidelity Japan Fund

Fund code: 00350

Ticker symbol: FJPNX

What it is: A growth mutual fund that invests overseas.

Goal: Seeks to provide long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of Japanese issuers (primarily in common stocks). Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. There is additional risk involved in investing in one geographic location. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1.5% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone with a diversified portfolio who wants to add a more specialized fund.
- Someone who is comfortable with the high investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing overseas, especially in emerging markets, as well as those of any growth mutual fund.

Fidelity Japan Smaller Companies Fund

Fund code: 00360

Ticker symbol: FJSCX

What it is: A growth mutual fund that invests overseas.

Goal: Seeks to provide long-term growth of capital.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of Japanese issuers with smaller market capitalizations. The fund may potentially invest in securities of Japanese issuers with larger market capitalizations and non-Japanese issuers. Normally invests primarily in common stocks. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. There is additional risk involved in investing in one geographic location. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1.5% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone with a diversified portfolio who wants to add a more specialized fund.
- Someone who is comfortable with the high investment risk and potential rewards involved in investing overseas, as well as with those of any growth mutual fund.

SPECIALTYFidelity International Real Estate Fund*Fund code: 01368Ticker symbol: FIREXWhat it is: A specialty mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide capital appreciation.

What it invests in: Normally invests primarily in common stocks of non-U.S. securities. The fund normally invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of companies principally engaged in the real estate industry and other real estate related investments. Because of their narrow focus, sector funds may be more volatile than funds that diversify across many sectors. Foreign investments, especially those in emerging markets, involve greater risk and may offer greater potential returns than U.S. investments. This risk includes political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as the risk of currency fluctuation. If you sell any of your shares after holding them for less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 1.5% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to complement the performance of U.S. investments with that of investments overseas, which can behave quite differently.
- Someone who believes in the long-term value of real estate, but who does not want to be limited to investing directly in real estate.

Fidelity Real Estate Income FundFund code: 00833Ticker symbol: FRIFXWhat it is: A growth and income mutual fund.Goal: Seeks to provide higher than average income. As a secondary objective, the fund also seeks capital growth.

What it invests in: Primarily invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of companies principally engaged in the real estate industry and other real estate related investments. Normally invests primarily in preferred and common stocks of real estate investment trusts (REITs); debt securities of real estate entities; and in commercial and other mortgage-backed securities, with an emphasis on lower-quality debt securities. The fund may invest in domestic and foreign issuers. The fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund might, which may cause greater share price fluctuation. Lower-quality debt securities involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. Changes in real estate values or economic downturns may have a significant negative effect on issuers in the real estate industry. If you sell any of your shares after holding them less than 90 days, the fund will deduct a short-term trading fee from your account equal to 0.75% of the value of the shares sold. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking higher than average income.
- Someone looking for increased diversification in his or her portfolio by investing in a fund with a low correlation to other asset classes.
- Someone who is looking for exposure to the long-term growth potential of professionally managed real estate securities.

Fidelity Freedom 2050 Fund®

What they are: The Fidelity Freedom Funds are investment options that allow the investor to select the fund that best matches his or her expected retirement year. The Fidelity Freedom Funds invest in a diversified portfolio of other Fidelity mutual funds to provide moderate asset allocation. They are designed for investors who want a simple yet diversified approach to investing for their retirement. The allocation strategy for the underlying equity, fixed-income, and short-term mutual funds is based on the number of years until the Freedom funds reach their target retirement dates. Each Freedom fund with a target retirement date will gradually adopt a more conservative asset allocation as it approaches its target retirement date. Therefore, each fund's target asset allocation percentages will change over time to become more conservative, by gradually reducing allocations to equity funds and increasing allocations to fixed-income and short-term funds. The Fidelity Freedom Income Fund®, designed for those already in retirement, emphasizes fixed-income and short-term mutual funds and seeks to maintain a stable asset allocation from year to year.

Goal: The Fidelity Freedom Funds with target retirement dates seek to provide high total returns until the target retirement date. Thereafter, each fund's goal will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation. The Freedom Income Fund seeks high current income and, secondarily, capital appreciation.

What they invest in: Each Freedom fund invests in a diversified portfolio of Fidelity equity, fixed-income, and short-term mutual funds. Fidelity Freedom 2050 Fund[®], with the longest time horizon, invests primarily in equity mutual funds to take advantage of potentially greater growth opportunities. The asset mix of each Freedom fund with a target retirement date (Fidelity Freedom Income Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2000 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2005 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2010 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2015 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2020 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2025 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2030 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2035 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2040 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2045 Fund[®], Fidelity Freedom 2050 Fund[®]) will gradually become more conservative over time so investors can stay with the same fund before and during retirement. After reaching the target retirement date, these Freedom funds continue to be managed more conservatively for 10 to 15 more years until their asset mix is approximately the same as Freedom Income Fund. Ultimately, after notifying the funds' investors, the funds will merge into the Freedom Income Fund. The Freedom Income Fund, designed for those already retired, is invested more conservatively, with a larger percentage in fixed-income and short-term funds and has a smaller percentage of equity mutual funds. The funds' manager must invest in the group of underlying funds named in the prospectus, and will aim for the projected target asset allocation percentages announced to investors in the funds' annual and semiannual reports. Freedom funds with target retirement dates may invest in domestic and foreign equity funds, high yield and investment grade fixed-income funds, and short-term funds. The Freedom Income Fund invests in domestic equity funds, investment grade fixed-income funds, high yield bond funds and short-term funds. These funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to the additional risk associated with investing in high yield, small cap, and foreign securities. Share price and return of each Freedom fund will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants a simple approach for choosing retirement investment options.
- Someone who wants a long-term investment strategy that changes over time as his or her target retirement date approaches.
- Someone who wishes to take advantage of a diversified portfolio of well-established, actively-managed Fidelity funds.

FIDELITY ASSET MANAGER FUNDS

Fidelity Asset Manager® 20%Fund code: 00328Ticker symbol: FASIXWhat it is: An asset allocation mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide a high level of current income by allocating its assets among stocks, bonds, short-term instruments, and other investments. The fund may also consider the potential for capital appreciation.

What it invests in: The manager allocates the fund's assets among domestic and foreign stocks, bonds, and short-term and money market instruments, either through direct investment or by investing in Fidelity central funds that hold such investments. The fund seeks to maintain a neutral mix over time of 20% stocks, 50% bonds, and 30% short-term and money market instruments. The fund's allocations may be adjusted gradually within the following ranges: stocks from 10% to 30%, bonds from 40% to 60%, and short-term and money market instruments from 10% to 50%. Fund allocations are adjusted based on the manager's regular review of the fund's assets in order to favor investments believed to provide a more favorable outlook for achieving the fund's objectives. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Stock values fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies, and to general market and economic conditions. Bond values fluctuate based on changes in interest rates and in the credit quality of the issuer. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to diversify among stocks, bonds, and short-term and money market instruments, and other types of securities.

Fidelity Asset Manager® 30%
Fund code: 01957Ticker symbol: FTANXWhat it is: An asset allocation mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks a high level of current income by allocating its assets among stocks, bonds, short-term instruments and other investments. The fund also considers the potential for capital appreciation.

What it invests in: The manager allocates the fund's assets among domestic and foreign stocks, bonds, and short-term and money market investments, either through direct investment or by investing in Fidelity central funds that hold such investments. The fund seeks to maintain a neutral mix over time of 30% stocks, 50% bonds and 20% short-term and money market instruments. The fund's allocations may be adjusted gradually within the following ranges: stocks from 20% to 40%, bonds from 40% to 60% and short-term and money market instruments from 0% to 50%. Fund allocations are adjusted based on the manager's regular review of the fund's assets in order to favor investments believed to provide a more favorable outlook for achieving the fund's objectives. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. Stock values fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions. Bond values fluctuate based on changes in interest rate and in the credit quality of the issuer. Share price and return will vary.

Who might want to invest:

- Someone who wants to diversify among stocks, bonds, short-term and money market instruments, and other types of securities, and who can tolerate the ups and downs of the stock market.
- Someone seeking high current income with the potential for capital appreciation and who wants the portfolio manager to have flexibility, within defined ranges, in deciding how to allocate the fund's assets.

Fidelity Investments 457(b) Enrollment Form and Beneficiary Designation

1. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Opening a new account: Please complete this form and sign it on the back. You may revoke the beneficiary designation and designate a different beneficiary by submitting a new Beneficiary Designation Form to Fidelity. You will receive written confirmation once your account is established. At that point you can submit a Salary Reduction Agreement to your Employer who can then forward contributions to your account. Please contact Fidelity, your Employer, or your tax advisor to determine your maximum allowable contribution.

Moving assets from an existing plan: To make a transfer or rollover contribution, please complete the enclosed transfer/rollover form. If a form was not included within your enrollment kit, please call to request a form.

Fees: Your account may be subject to an annual maintenance and/or recordkeeping fee.

Mailing instructions: Return this form in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or to Fidelity Investments, P.O. Box 770002, Cincinnati, OH 45277-0090

Questions? Call Fidelity Investments at 1-800-343-0860, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to midnight, Eastern time, or visit us at www.fidelity.com/atwork.

2. SELECTING YOUR INVESTMENT OPTIONS

In whole percentages please indicate how you wish to have your contributions allocated to the investment options available for investment under your plan. Please ensure that your allocations total 100%, for example, 50% for your first, 30% for your second, and 20% for your third fund choice. If your percentages do not add up to 100% or you select an unavailable investment option, your contribution will be invested in an investment option according to your plan rules.

If you would like to select more than four investment options, please write the fund code, fund name, and allocation percentage on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to your account application. The fund code can be found in your investment options brochure.

3. DESIGNATING YOUR BENEFICIARY(IES)

You are not limited to two primary and two contingent beneficiaries. To assign additional beneficiaries, or to designate a more complex beneficiary designation, please attach, sign, and date a separate piece of paper.

When designating primary and contingent beneficiaries, please use whole percentages and be sure that the percentages for each group of beneficiaries total 100%. Your primary beneficiary cannot be your contingent beneficiary. If you designate a trust as a beneficiary, please include the trust's name and the date the trust was created.

If more than one person is named and no percentages are indicated, payment will be made in equal shares to your primary beneficiaries who survive you. If a percentage is indicated and a primary beneficiary(ies) does not survive you, the percentage of that beneficiary's designated share shall be divided among the surviving primary beneficiaries in proportion to the percentage selected for them.

Any assets distributed from your governmental 457(b) plan will be taxed as ordinary income in the year withdrawn. If the distribution is eligible to be rolled over, but is not directly rolled over to an eligible plan or IRA, 20% mandatory withholding of federal income tax applies. Federal income tax will not be withheld if an eligible plan-to-plan transfer is made to another employer's 457(b) plan that accepts the transfer. Be sure you understand the federal and state tax consequences of any distribution before you initiate one. You may want to consult your tax adviser about your situation.

Be sure you understand the plan guidelines before you initiate a loan from your plan account.

Please be sure you understand the tax consequences of any withdrawal from the Plan.

The investment options available through the Plan reserve the right to modify or withdraw the exchange privilege.

Unless otherwise noted, transaction requests confirmed after the close of the market, normally 4 p.m. Eastern time, or on weekends or holidays, will receive the next available closing price.

This document provides only a summary of the main features of the MCPS 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan, and the Plan Document will govern in the event of discrepancies.
